Waste disposal during the stand assembly and dismantling periods

All exhibitors are responsible for the disposal of any waste produced on their respective stands. As far as the stand assembly and dismantling periods are concerned, we offer you herewith a wide range of services for the environmentally friendly disposal of waste. The following services listed also include the actual disposal in accordance with the terms of business detailed on page 2. If you have engaged a company to build and/or dismantle your stand, we would kindly ask you to inform the company concerned of our guidelines in this respect.

The recipient of the invoice is Messe München GmbH's official contracting partner (the exhibitor) in all cases. Invoices cannot be issued to third parties.

Important to note! Stand areas are to be swept and cleaned after the designated stand dismantling period. Exhibitors themselves or companies appointed by them are responsible for the removal of adhesive tape and/or other debris from the stand. Only such persons as are appointed by Messe München GmbH for the purpose are permitted to dispose of any waste in the containers located in the loading areas.

Waste disposal during the event

Take advantage of Messe München GmbH's free service – each day, a yellow refuse sack is provided for mixed recyclable materials (e.g. packaging) and a grey refuse sack for wet rubbish (e.g. coffee filters). The refuse sacks are available from the info counter in your hall or from the cleaning service for the duration of the trade fair. Any questions you may have in this connection should be addressed to our Technical Exhibition Service. You can also dispose of glass free of charge in the large containers for recycling (igloos) which are situated in the loading yards.

Please let us know the size of your stand: _____ m²

Waste consultants

Waste consultants approved by Messe München GmbH and identifiable as such are available in the halls and are your contacts for all waste- and disposal-related matters. Waste sacks can be obtained on site and containers rented from these persons, while solutions for any waste disposal problems can be discussed with them. If you need a waste consultant on site, please contact the relevant technical services team.

Additional information

In accordance with City of Munich ordinances concerning the disposal of commercial and construction waste, the separation of waste into individual recyclable groups is mandatory. All exhibitors and stand builders are therefore obliged to take effective steps before, during and after the event to minimise waste and ensure both its proper separation and disposal.

⇒ Disposable carpeting should be avoided if possible

⇒ Please do not use disposable cutlery or dishes

Important! Waste left by the exhibitor, his customers or persons appointed by him on the grounds of Messe München GmbH after the designated stand dismantling period without any arrangements having been made for its disposal will be treated as mixed (loose) waste (Item no. 30812) and disposed of at a cost of EUR 90.00/m³ plus VAT. An additional administrative charge (Item no. 30806) of EUR 70.00 will also be raised. Each cubic metre or part thereof will be invoiced at the per m³ rate. Such waste as is left on the exhibitor's stand after the designated stand dismantling period is considered to be the exhibitor's waste in this respect. This also applies to any adhesive tape or residue thereof that has not been removed from the hall floors by the end of the designated stand dismantling period.

Messe München GmbH reserves the right to alter prices in the case of higher disposal charges being incurred. All prices quoted are subject to the statutory level of value-added tax applying at the given time.

Messe München GmbH's General Terms of Contract for Exhibition Services apply additionally.
